

Incumbent regional Bell companies must not be allowed to force the customers to keep the local telephone service with them in order to get the broadband (DSL) internet service. At least in my are SBC does this. Chairman Powell keeps talking about other competition (e.g., wireless) for local telephone service, but if one wants to have broadband over telephone, one is force to maintain local service with the incumbent monopolies.